Mr:

We would like to know if you have any information available to the public about the Central Intelligence Agency and how it operates. If possible we would like to know about the history of the agency and it's function in today's government.

We would greatly appreciate any booklets or information sheets that you might have available. We have 30 students in our class and would appreciate it if material could be provided in quantities that would allow each student to have an individual copy.

Thank you for your help and attention in this matter.

Yours Respectfully,

John M. Riley
